

NICOLEHOLLIS

ALABASTER BOWL, NO. 3

NICOLEHOLLIS COLLECTION

EXCLUSIVE TO NICOLEHOLLIS COLLECTION

ORIGIN

Italy

PRODUCTION

Editioned

DESCRIPTION

The monolithic form of this one-of-a-kind alabaster decorative bowl is a reference to antiquity for modern contexts. It is hand-turned from a block of Agata Scura alabaster, a rare and expressive brown stone sourced in Volterra, Italy. The ovoid undercut rim calls back to ancient Egyptian travertine vessels and a dialogue between the coldness of stone and the warmth of earth.

DIMENSIONS

28"dia x 4"H

CARE

Alabaster is naturally porous and fragile. We recommend cleaning with a dry cloth. For deep cleaning, use acetone or mineral spirits on a cotton swab. Never wash with water or use detergents, alcohol, or corrosive substances

MATERIAL

Agata Scura Alabaster
